Dear wine friends,

We are honored to invite you, on behalf of the Romanian Senate and Consulate of the Ordo Equestris Vini Europae, to the third edition of the Knightly Festival of Romanian Wine (FCVR) which will take place between September 30 and October 2 this year, with an optional extension until October 5, 2022.

Consistent with the promise that each edition will bring something in addition to the previous ones, this year's edition of FCVR will take place on the beautiful lands of Dobrogea, offering a lot of oenological, gastronomic and cultural experiences to all participants.

The history of cultivating vines in the Carpathian-Danubian-Pontic area begins with Vitis vinifera silvestris, a wild vine that appeared here around 7000 BC, from which important varieties are extracted that are still cultivated today in Romania. The poet Ovidius himself (43 BC - 17 AD), one of the classics of Latin literature, exiled by the emperor Octavianus Augustus in the city of Tomis (today's Constanța) mentions in his writings the importance of the vine on the Dobrogean lands, and the numerous amphorae discovered in the area confirm the fact that since Roman antiquity Dobrogea was a hub of the wine trade.

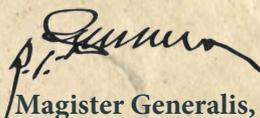

Exploiting with dedication and professionalism the generous territory between the Danube and the sea, CRAMA LIUTA, the official partner of this edition of FCVR, manages to metamorphose the ripe grapes under the rays of the Dobrogean sun and caressed by the Black Sea breeze in magical liqueurs that will surely delight your taste buds.

As a novelty compared to previous editions, in order to have a complete experience in the wonderful Dobrogea, this year we will organize an optional extension in the Danube Delta, the best preserved delta in Europe and the only one in the world included in full in UNESCO heritage, where participants will have a very special program: boat trips on the canals to discover the flora and fauna of the delta, safaris in the Caraorman Forest (Black Forest) among secular oaks and sand dunes of marine origin up to 9 meters high, truffle hunting with dogs, live cooking and wine tastings, Lipovan art performances and many other surprises.

FCVR 3	PERIOD	LOCATIONS

We look forward to sharing the passion for our wine heritage together again.
